If you answered 'No' to both questions, this checklist is your clearance from the District. If you answered 'Yes' to either question, you must contact the District to determine if air quality permits are required. If permits are required, the District will assist you in obtaining the necessary air quality permits and provide you with a clearance letter for your Occupancy Permit. Please contact the District if you have any questions.

California Govt Code, Section 65850.2(c) *" A city or county shall not issue a final certificate of occupancy…unless there is verification from the administering agency…that the owner or authorized agent has met…the requirements for a permit…from the air pollution control district or air quality management district…or has provided proof from the appropriate district that the permit requirements do not apply…"
